»» Vision for Curriculum

Knowledge. Creativity. Curiosity.

The English Department at St Paul's believes in developing creativity and confidence through a wide range of fiction and non-fiction texts. We challenge our students to explore meanings and ideas in their own and others' writing. We create opportunities to articulate opinions, develop confidence and enrich the cultural capital of students.

»» Vision for Teaching

Ambitious. Inspiring. Evolving.

We aspire to craft an ambitious learning culture in which all pupils are enthused to extend their learning into all areas of the curriculum. We strive to galvanise pupils to evolve deep conceptual understanding under-pinned by breadth and depth.

»» Vision for Learning

Curious. Imaginative. Eloquent.

We hope to inspire writers who dare to dream, readers immersed in other worlds and voices that carry their passion into the future.

»» Vision for Learning

Resilient, creative and confident learners.

Our vision is for our students to develop a range of knowledge and skills that enable them to communicate confidently and coherently in a range of contexts.
